SHOUT YOURSELF TO DEATH
Music by Stefano DAL COL / Lyrics by Carlo CASALE

Thick fogs change the colour creating images without sense miserably impoverished by our effort we walk all bent dragging ourselves along there were flashes of lightning that lit up of the gloomy storm in wich we saw every reason to be so.
We have abandoned the simplicity of long ago maybe only to look less obvious we have sailed on our sea of doubts caressing the waves of risk we have shouted to death to fight ourselves vainly concentrating on our reserch dirty mind like walls and rough asphalt without reflections we could shout ourselves to death we could shout so we don't die we could shout without being able to die

....and now here we are, stretched out in the air leaving our efforts to the edges completely soaked, with a saddly hinted smile and while it starts to rain again we will shout to death ao that storms don't begin in the morning
