VANITY FAIR

Music by Stefano DAL COL / Lyrics by Carlo CASALE

Jumpin' quickly in another dance looking for the absence that created existence breathing in silence to absorb the thought then catch it on pain it on black take in up by bad signs maybe tempted because not the only ones diggin deep inside us discussing you as well our cradle without bottom comin out of the dark to go into obscurity for very few – for ever – for us – for ever

I'm talking like a poet but really I'm not asking for other words

In a moment like this ridin' over faith still in silence the contained of the abstract trying to change colour before the season vanley among the few left over.
