Music and Lyrics by Alain N KONDA

Once upon a time I asked you where we were going
Be a leader do not always be a follower
While living abroad I was missing, missing you
I called my friends back home for my peace of mind

Love

I still recall the day I asked you where we were going
The love I feel is pain, pain of losing you
While living abroad I am still missing you
My friends have already told me that you have found someone new

Love

To know you is to love you, to shield and protect is all I want to do
Understand me you are everything I see
You are the heart of my Church, the church I call my Soul
Call it love... Call it passion... Desire... Fire!
Call it love... Infatuation... Desire... Burning flame

My love... I missed you during my trip to Senegal
My love... I waited for you in America
My love... I have immortalized you in a song

My heart and my soul overflows from this love I have nurtured deep inside me for you.
