LETTER TO MOM
Music & Lyrics by Riccardo CARESTIA

When everybody speaks about something, it is in my head
And I nothing, the emptiness, always like this.
I've never turned back to look at what I had left by the sides of the road.
Few times I thought how it would have been.
I'm here and I suffer so much, but not a tear from my eyes.
I was programmed well Sir.
The burden I'm carrying is as big and is as insignificant for everyone else out there.
Set me free, from this shit, with your love
Mom, set me free Mom hurry up!
The medicine that cures all the bacacil for chronic sickness thirst of truth
I recognize everything is wrong but I'm very far from the justice of the just Manhattan, oh Manhattan you are in my dreams
And I don't come to you 'cause I know I'd be disappointed
Anyway we never really become who we are in our dreams
Set me free from this misery Mom
Do it with your love, maybe the only one I've never known
Blinded by the madness I have never doubted
Your love for me never diminished, mama set me free.
